

I am greatly concerned about a petition by the Consumer Banking Association to weaken the Do Not Call List. I do not want to recieve these solicitations at home, while I am trying to enjoy dinner with my family. Please, do not let these corporate bastards take away my right to enjoy a peaceful evening with my family to put everything on hold to listen to a sales pitch I won't buy anyway.

Thanks.

Jason S. Rundle